

Turchaninova Tamara Petrovna - Candidate of Technical Sciences, for many years heads direction of designing of the new equipment in "ФГАНУ НИИ хлебопекарной промышленности". She's engaged in developments in the field of creation storage and transportation methods of flour. Under her management have been developed and have been put on mass production a lot of units at engineering plants. Her developments are widely introduced in food and other industries of Russian Federation and CIS countries. A pioneer in the field of creation complex warehouses of flour bulk storage.

She is the author of more than 200 scientific works, including 5 monographs, more than 40 copyright certificates and patents for inventions. She was entitled "Inventor Of USSR" and "Honourable baker of Russia" for merits. Representative of university at the international exhibitions. She was awarded with medals and diplomas. She actively provides technical assistance in enterprises reconstruction and introduction of new developments from Moscow to outskirts.